Notes from the Pastor

Year of the Mass

The Acts of Penitence in the Mass:

In the introductory Rites of most Masses, following the Greeting, all present are invited to pause to reflect on their own sinfulness and to ask mercy of the great and loving God whose supreme act of love they are about to celebrate. As we enter the great Mystery which is the Mass, this Rite serves as a reminder to us of our fundamental unworthiness; unworthiness redeemed by the passion, death and resurrection of Christ our Lord.

The Acts of Penitence in the new Roman Missal have the same forms as those familiar to us in the present Mass, although some of the texts have slightly different translation. Each form begins with an invitation by the priest to acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries. This invitation is followed by a period of silence in which we reflect briefly on our own sinfulness. Each form concludes with absolution, a prayer by the priest for forgiveness. While this absolution does not carry the power of the absolution given in the sacrament of Penance, when an individual confesses his or her sins directly to the priest, it is a powerful plea for God's mercy made by the priest on his own behalf and on behalf of all who join with him in this Eucharistic.

There are three forms from which the priest may choose the Act of Penitence. The first form is the Confiteor. In this form, we pray the prayers familiar to all of us with a few changes.

The changes have been made to communicate the original Latin text more accurately.

The second form retains the same structure of invocation and response as the current version, however there have been several slight changes in wording.

The third form which consists of three invocations with a response to each invocation remains the same as in the current Missal.
